

Course: ECE 418.

- Instructor: Mojtaba Soltanalian, msol@uic.edu.
- Lecture delivery method: synchronous. Lectures for each Monday and Wednesday will be pre-recorded and made available to all students registered for the class. We will gather at the first class and a few times afterwards together to get to know each other and to build group spirit. The instructor will be available during the class hours on Mondays and Wednesdays for further discussions and questions from students. Class hours on Fridays will be dedicated to paper presentations by the course participants and presentation of supporting materials by the course teaching assistant.
- Laboratory delivery method: not applicable.
